SAM BLACK PAPERS

MS 83 / SB 5 – Artefacts awarded or gifted to Black

Biographical History:

Sam Black lectured extensively on public relations around the world throughout his career, including trips to China, the Far East and the USA. As well as being actively involved in the Institute of Public Relations (IPR) and International Public Relations Association (IPRA) he maintained links with numerous public relations professional associations worldwide and attended many of their meetings and conferences.

Scope and Content:

System of Arrangement:

The series has been arranged into 4 boxes reflecting the creator's order and the activities to which they relate.

Language: English and Chinese.

Extent: 4 boxes: 27 artefacts